

SIGMAnet Overview

Digital District Architects

Enabling districts to plan, execute and sustain 21st Century Learning Environments

Industry Compared to Education

The Facts

Will you be Employable in 2025?

Job market of the future

65%

of today's schoolchildren will eventually be employed in jobs that have yet to be created, according to this U.S. Department of Labor report

CLIMB Program Overview

CAREER LEARNING INTERNSHIP AND MENTORSHIP BUILDING

- The CLIMB Program is designed to enable career pathways by providing relevant work experience, internship and mentorship for learners targeting a career in Information Technology
- Upon successful completion, Climbers will receive a letter of recommendation for future employment, official skills analysis score (CLIMBER Score) and certification from SIGMAnet in the mastered skillsets

CLIMB Program Overview

Mentorships with Top Technology Companies and various roles

Instructor led classroom instruction on fundamental IT concepts

Hands on exercises with real equipment to put theory into practice

Shadow experienced resources in the field of interest

CLIMB Program Overview

CAREER LEARNING INTERNSHIP AND MENTORSHIP BUILDING

- The program will be delivered either on premises or at SIGMAnet facilities where a ConnectED classroom is available
- The program is designed for a total of 40 hours. Typically 8-12 x 3 hour sessions and 16 hours of on the job shadowing

ConnectED Classroom

Enabling Successful Outcomes

