Our Motto: I will serve joyfully, lead confidently, and inspire others through my faith in Jesus.

Dear SASEAS families,

Happy Easter! I hope your families had a wonderful Holy Week, Easter, and break. We are back at it this week, and believe it or not, we only have a little over seven weeks remaining in our school year. The learning is not over, and we will continue to work hard until the last day!

Our staff attended the NCEA Convention and Expo last week at the Duke Energy Convention Center downtown. Over 4,000 Catholic educators, Church leaders, supporters, and vendors from around the world were in attendance. We attended liturgies and professional development sessions, met with education and technology vendors, and volunteered a shift or two to help the convention run smoothly.

The Seton campus Grandparents Day invitations have been sent home. Please return them as soon as possible for our planning purposes. Thank you!

Our outstanding PTO is in the process of securing parents interested in serving as members-at-large for both campuses. Please contact Lori Figart at lorifigart@cinci.rr.com if you are interested. Thank you to all the volunteers who are finishing their terms and who have served our school so generously.

This Friday will be a busy day as our 5th graders attend their annual COSI trip to the science center in Columbus and our 7th graders have a field trip to Rookwood Pottery. Friday is also a spirit day.

Next Monday, our St. Andrew campus is excited to welcome Holocaust survivor, Dr. Henry Fenichel, to speak to the 8th grade students during their studies of World War II and the horrors of the Holocaust. Dr. Fenichel taught physics at UC for nearly 40 years. Thank you to Mrs. Beiersdorfer for arranging this wonderful learning experience.

Have a great week! It's a great time to be a Titan!

Christ's peace,

Principal
