News from Burnet CISD School Board Meetings

November 13, 2017

Recognitions

- ★ R. J. Richey Elementary students Rhett Murray, Chloe Shannon, and Adler Goehring started the meeting by leading the Pledge of Allegiance to the American and Texas flags. The three students are pictured with Superintendent Keith McBurnett and Principal B. J. Gates.
- ★ The November Students of the Month were selected from the BHS English Department. Department Chair Betty Sue Smallwood introduced Seniors Savanna McHam and Ayden Gonzalez stating that the two are continually interested in just not their grade, but details about the subject matter and how to learn more about the lesson studied. Savanna has received several offers to continue playing soccer after high school, one being Concordia University. Ayden has received a congressional invitation to the US Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland. Savanna and Ayden are pictured here with Mrs. Smallwood and Principal Casey Burkhart
- ★ The November Spotlight featured the new BHS course offering of Mandarin Chinese. Assistant Principal Kristi Carruthers introduced three students in this year's inaugural class - Lane Dalrymple, Leah Ng, and Neeradt Leon. The students talked about why they were interested in taking the class and the advantages to learning the language. They also shared a fun fact - by 2028 Chinese will be the most widely spoken language in the world. (Spanish will be second).
