

Parent’s Objection to the Release of Student Information to Military Recruiters and Institutions of Higher Education

(Applicable to secondary grade levels only)

Federal law requires that the district release to military recruiters and institutions of higher education, upon request, the name, address, and telephone number of secondary school students enrolled in the district, unless a student’s parent or eligible student directs the district not to release information to these types of requestors without prior written consent. [See Objecting to the Release of Student Information to Military Recruiters and Institutions of Higher Education for more information.]

Parent: Please complete and return to school the following only if you do not want your child’s information released to a military recruiter or an institution of higher education without your prior written consent.

I, parent of _____ (student’s name), request that the district not release my child’s name, address, and telephone number to a military recruiter or institution of higher education without my prior written consent.

Parent’s signature: _____ Date: _____

Please note that if this form is not returned with the other materials identifying what the district considers directory information, the district will assume that permission has been granted for the release of this information.
