2 A ministry of service

Acts 6:1-7; Psalm 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19 (22); 1 Peter 2:4-9; John 14:1-12.

The entire life of Jesus was devoted to service. Many people reject a lifestyle of service as demeaning or depressing. And yet in the Church and through many caring professions, service has become a cornerstone of society. Early Christian communities understood the centrality of service. In today's readings, we hear of them appointing Stephen and six other deacons to serve those in need – especially widows and orphans, who were particularly vulnerable. Throughout the history of the Church, deacons and laypeople have carried on many varieties of service.

Do you have deacons serving in your faith community? Be sure to pray for them and support them in their ministry. In the Church, there are two kinds of deacons: transitional (those moving toward ordained priesthood) and permanent (those who will remain as deacons in a life of service). Permanent deacons may be married, but if the wife dies, they may not remarry. In parishes, service is most often carried out by many laywomen and laymen. Many who serve share a deep vocation for their ministry.

Jesus showed us the way, the truth, and the life. All of us, by virtue of our Baptism, are called to lead others to Christ. We together, with bishops, priests, deacons, men and women religious, live out our baptismal ministry. Pray for the variety of ministries in the Church, and pray for unity among all whose shared ministry is to build up the resurrected Body of Christ.

Are you interested in becoming Catholic?

Do you hear the Lord calling you to membership in his Church and life as a disciple of Jesus? You are invited to begin the journey of faith toward Baptism through RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults.

An invitation is also extended to anyone from another faith tradition who is interested in Catholicism, or Catholics who wish to return to active membership and receive their First Communion and Confirmation.

Come learn about the Catholic faith in a comfortable environment where questions are welcome! At our Inquiry sessions – Wednesdays at 7 p.m. from May 17 to June 14 – participants explore the basic teachings of Catholicism. No commitment is asked during Inquiry. However, this series does provide a foundation for the full RCIA process that follows, if you choose to continue.

For details, contact Kathy Steighner, RCIA Coordinator, at (909) 626-3596, ext. 4221.

Teach us to serve

Loving Father,
you care for the human family
with the gift of your Son, and by urging us to carry your love into the world. Make us attentive to Christ's example of service.
Help us to follow him in announcing your reign. May we look to all the ministers of the early Church as models for our work among your holy people.
Inspire us to be advocates for the poor,
and make us mindful of the dignity of each human person. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.
Amen.

OLA School

Academic Year 2017-2018

Applications for new students are now being accepted at OLA School for 2017-2018. Call weekdays for more information or to arrange a personal tour at (909) 626-7135.

Summer School

Experienced educators staff OLA Summer School in two sessions: June 19 to June 30 and July 3 to July 14. Offered are Reading and Writing (K-7), Math (K-5) and Study Skills (4-7), in addition to Algebra Review (6-7). Students may register for up to three one-hour classes per session at $100 per class plus $50 registration fee.

Summer Camp

Summer Camp is open June 19 to July 28 for kids ages four to thirteen, Monday to Friday from 6:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Weekly, daily or minimum day rates are available. The fun comes to OLA for art, drama, dance, gardening, cooking, sports, water fun, science and raffles. Call (909) 626-7135.

Holy Spirit seminar comes to OLA

OLA will be host to the Holy Spirit Seminar offered free of charge by the Southern California Renewal Communities (SCRC) on Saturday, May 27, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the auditorium.

Guest speakers include Dominic Berardino, president of SCRC, Dr. Elizabeth Kim, psychologist, and Fr. Bill Delaney, S.J. Participants are invited to bring a sack lunch, or dine in the Claremont Village during the break.

Parishioners are invited to prepare for Pentecost at this seminar by drawing closer to God, praying for personal and global healing, and finding spiritual empowerment through the Holy Spirit. For details, contact Mary O'Connor at (909) 624-7201.

Last chance for...

Fr. Tom's Ireland

Deadline is June 1 for the pilgrimage to Ireland with Msgr. Tom Welbers, former pastor and guide par excellence! Dates are Sept. 4-14 and cost is $2,899 (plus taxes, fees and tips), including air fare from/to LAX. Contact him at thomas.welbers@gmail.com or (909) 367-4592 or visit <http://tomwelbers.wordpress.com/irelandsept2017>.

6 Outreach

Outreach Expo May 28

'Cry of the poor, cry of the earth'

Responding to Pope Francis who challenges us to hear “the cry of the poor and the cry of the earth,” OLA will host an exposition of outreach ministries and organizations on Sunday, May 28, from 7:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the auditorium. Contact Deacon Jim Allgaier or Deacon John Tullius for more information through the parish office.

This exciting, first-time event will bring together multiple groups from OLA and the local community which engage volunteers to serve the poor and promote the care of the environment. These include St. Vincent De Paul Society, Stephen Ministry, Crossroads Inc., Fair Trade Ministry, Uncommon Good, Jeff Domond Foundation for Haiti, Get On the Bus, Immigration Rights Team, Knights of Columbus, Just Act & Just Faith, Sustainable Claremont, Sierra Club, Catholic Relief Services, East San Gabriel Valley Coalition for the Homeless, Inland Valley Hope Partners, Habitat for Humanity, Meals on Wheels, and more.

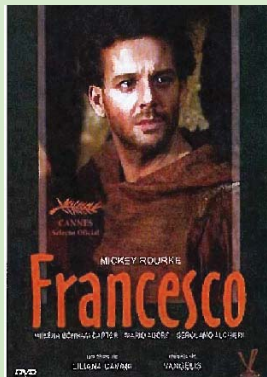

The inspiration for this event comes from the acclaimed book by Pope Francis, Laudato Si - On Care of Our Common Home – which has been the topic of study groups and workshops at OLA.

Backpacks needed for Get On The Bus

Get On The Bus regional coordinator has indicated a shortage of backpacks for the next Father's Day event on June 10. Needed are 34 backpacks, including items for the trip that takes children to see their father in prison in the Salinas Valley (about 6-7 hours' ride). ALL packs must contain pens/pencils/crayons and paper to create a Father's Day card. Other suggestions are unisex notecards and stamps, 4x6 picture frame, disposable camera, coloring books, magazines, journals, playing cards, puzzles, chap stick, granola bars, fruit snacks, stick, tissues, juice, etc. Blankets and teddy bears also appreciated. Please bring donations to the patio next weekend, May 20-21, or contact Deacon John Tullius at (909) 576-6276 or tullius5@ca.rr.com. Also, backpacks will be available for sale on the patio to donors who wish to simplify the task of filling them.

Franciscan Movie Night

Come and enjoy complimentary movie, popcorn, candy and drinks on Franciscan Movie Night on Saturday, May 20, at 7 p.m. in the auditorium.

The movie is Francesco about the life and times of St. Francis of Assisi. A docu-drama shows the evolution of this saint from rich merchant's son to revolutionary disciple. It was filmed in the Abruzzo region of Italy and won three film awards.

Help immigrant family

Older parishioners may recall the service of Fr. Celestine Mbanu at OLA. He now resides and works in Rialto for the Diocese of San Bernardino. This month, his brother's wife and daughter (age 10) will be arriving from Nigeria to join his brother.

The family's apartment is essentially empty. Needed are lamps, an occasional chair or recliner, end tables, dishes, paper goods, towels, etc. Claire Troxell is coordinating the effort to help stock the apartment. Please contact her at (909) 981-8136 if you have anything usable to donate. She is able to pick-up donations at your home and transport them to Rialto.

Hunger for Change

This module from JustFaith explores the realities of food insecurity in the United States and around the world. Parishioners are invited to sign-up at the Outreach Ministry Expo May 28 or on the patio after Masses on June 4 and June 18.

In this program, a prayerful process is created that includes the study of Scripture, dialogue, and an “immersion” experience with people who live in marginalized communities. The group will also engage in spiritual practices that illuminate the reality of food security. Finally, the group will vision action steps to address root causes of hunger.

The module of eight sessions begins in July. For more information, contact Deacon Jim Allgaier at (909) 626-3596, ext. 216.

Director of Faith Formation

As a representative of the pastor, the Director of Faith Formation (DFF) has general oversight of the Faith Formation Department and assists the pastor in building a solid foundation for spirituality, Christian living, and evangelization in the parish community. The DFF manages program content, staff, and budgets, coordinates with other parish ministries and activities, and reports to pastor, parish councils and committees as required. Other important elements are inclusion of the family in the formation process and the use of modern media and technology in implementing programs. Candidates must be bilingual (English/Spanish), skilled in all forms of communication, and experienced in management of paid staff and volunteers. A plus is knowledge of and exposure to Vietnamese culture. Candidate should be well-versed in Scripture, the Catechism and Church documents, and sensitive to Church teaching on controversial topics. A degree in theology or religious education is required, preferably a master's degree. Five years recent catechetical experience should include executive responsibilities. Complete the application available at the Archdiocesan website: www.la-archdiocese.org/employmentpdf. Send application, cover letter and resume to Deacon Jim Allgaier by email at jallgaier@olaclaremont.org or by FAX (909) 624-3680 with the subject line: "Your First and Last Name – Director of Faith Formation DFF."
