

January 9, 2018

SJSPA Meeting

In attendance:

Elizabeth Bleser, Liz Hein, Lindsay Scott, Christine Everett, Michelle Nettesheim, Jenni Wild, Chris Rudolph, Kelly Behrends

Opening Prayer

Principal's Report (Liz Hein)

- Daddy/Daughter set up.
- Coffee for K-2 parents, 7:30 – 9:30 at Formation Center. If well received, will open up to additional grades
 - Ann will send out email to room parents if open to setting this up by grade as way to open dialog between parents
 - State of volunteerism within school- last minute commitments are dropping by 50%.
 - Largest concern is with recruiting leads and building succession plans.

Treasurer's Report (Michelle Nettesheim)

- $3464.19 under budget; looking to be mindful stewards of the budget
- Questions on how SAC should be funding the operational expenses – it will take a couple of years to go under their span of control

SAC Update (Elizabeth)

- No real updates

Marketing (Jenni)

- Discussion from above on volunteerism, deciding how to send out notes to room moms

Art in the Box (Lindsay)

- Bought many supplies at end of last year
- Doing alright on volunteers but don't have excess

Volunteer Incentive Program (Jenni)

- Will be doing the drawing later this week.

St Nicholas Day (Tiffany)

- Streamlined approach this year – looking to add basket next year to reduce waste

Faculty Holiday Luncheon (Elizabeth B)

- Went very well

Santa's Secret Shop (Tiffany S.)

- Record earnings this year

Ornament Project (Lindsay Scott)

- Well received from Parishoners

New Business:

Father Daughter Dance (Elizabeth and Kelly)

- Sign-ups very strong this year
- Concerned over involvement succession for next year

Family Fun Night (Hein)

- Over President's day weekend this year, will be moved back for next year. On Saturday this year and Friday for next year

Catholic School Week (CSW) Lunches

- Discussion over teacher lunches for the week

CSW Book Fair (Tiffany)

- Need adult volunteers for check out

Java with Joe (Mary)

- Volunteers signed up in October, sending notice to confirm still engaged

CSW Other (Liz and Elizabeth)

- Pancake breakfast run by volunteers and run by former parent

Closing Prayer