EL Home Language Survey for All New Kindergarten and Incoming Students

Instructions for schools in completing the survey:

1. Interview the parents or guardians of ALL new kindergarten and incoming students in grades k–12 and record all information requested.
2. Provide interpretation services whenever necessary.
3. Check to see that all questions on the form are answered.
4. If a parent or guardian responds with any language other than English for one or more questions, then the student will be referred to the English Language Coordinator who will initiate the language screening process. Radford City Schools ensures that incoming English Language Students are identified, screened and placed in appropriate programs and services within thirty days of enrollment. Radford City Public Schools ensures that all ELs enrolling in our schools are identified in a consistent manner.
