FINANCIAL AID GUIDELINES

Bishop McGuinness Catholic High School strives to provide financial assistance to all families in need each school year.

Sources of Funding:

Parish Subsidies	80% of subsidy monies (Catholic families)
Annual Giving Campaign	Designated % of funds received
BMCHS Budget	$30,000 average per year
Diocesan Scholarships	Determined by the Diocese
Endowment Funds	Per Foundation Investment Policy

BMCHS contracts with FACTS Management Company to review and advise allocation amounts based upon family submitted information on their application forms. The application due date To FACTS is 4/3/17. BMCHS will notify recipients of awarded funding by mid-May.

If a student has been awarded financial assistance and subsequently withdraws from BMCHS, only those funds applicable to the time enrolled will be awarded. The balance of approved funding is forfeited. Awarded financial assistance can only be used for tuition. Financial aid must be applied for each consecutive year. It does not carry forward from one year to the next.
