

John F. Kennedy High School Senior Portfolio Presentation Rubric		Student: _____
		Presentation Date: _____
Presentation Traits
	4	3	2	1
				Total
Organization	Student presents information in logical, interesting sequence.	Student presents information in logical sequence .	Audience has difficulty following presentation.	Audience cannot understand presentation.
Elocution and Presentation	Student uses a clear voice and precise pronunciation of terms so that all audience members can hear presentation. Student maintains eye contact with audience , seldom returning to notes. Information in text contains no mechanical errors .	Student's voice is clear . Student pronounces most words correctly. The presentation can be heard. Student maintains eye contact , but frequently returns to notes. Information in text contains two mechanical errors .	Student's voice is low . Student incorrectly pronounces terms. It was difficult to hear the presentation. Student occasionally uses eye contact , but still reads most of report. Information in text contains three mechanical errors .	Student mumbles , incorrectly pronounces terms, and speaks too quietly. Student reads all of report with no eye contact . Information in text contains four or more mechanical errors .
Content	Student demonstrates an impressive amount of work can explain what he/she learned or mastered in each assignment.	Student demonstrates an adequate amount of work can explain what he/she learned or mastered in each assignment.	Student demonstrates an un-impressive amount of work , has a hard time explaining what he/she learned or mastered in each assignment.	Student demonstrates hardly any work , and cannot explain what he/she learned or mastered in each assignment.
				Total

JFK Graduates demonstrate that they are Effective Communicators when presenting their Senior Portfolio.

Notes:

If a presenter scores six points or fewer, the presenter must reschedule (repeat) the presentation.

Student dresses professionally for the presentation:

Boys: slacks, shirt tucked in, dress shoes or clean tennis shoes.

Girls: appropriate skirt/pant length, no strappy sandals, platform heels or inappropriate jewelry.

Parent/Guardian in attendance: Yes No