

Chamlian Parents Greet New Principal Dr. Talin Kargodorian

Community Latest News June 18, 2014

New Chamlian Armenian School Principal Dr. Talin Kargodorian speaks during a 'meet and greet' event with parents GLENDAL—Chamlian Armenian School's parents were recently invited to a "Meet & Greet the New Principal Night" event, designed for parents to get better acquainted with the new Principal, Dr. Talin Kargodorian.

Chamlian's board member, Armineh Khachaturian, welcomed Dr. Kargodorian with her opening remarks, after which Dr. Kargodorian offered her welcoming remarks as a former Chamlian student and now, the proud new principal of Chamlian Armenian School.

"I am committed to continuing the path of success that Chamlian has paved and will continue to work together with all stakeholders to ensure that our school is not just the best Armenian school, but the best school, period!" Dr. Kargodorian said.

"My door, my heart and mind are always open. Thank you for welcoming me back to where my journey began as a part of the amazing Chamlian family."

In closing, Principal Vazken Madenlian expressed his heartfelt assertion that Dr. Kargodorian will indeed be a great fit for continuing Chamlian Armenian School's legacy.

Following the formal presentation, parents had the opportunity to personally meet Dr. Kargodorian over coffee and treats.

The event was an excellent opportunity for Chamlian parents to hear from Dr. Kargodorian, first hand, as she shared her extensive education and experience in the field of education and her commitment to Chamlian's excellence.

Dr. Kargodorian will officially begin as Principal of Chamlian Armenian School on August 1, 2014.