

Sebastian Basa

For the art show, I created a sculpture of David and Goliath. I chose to make this sculpture because I thought it would be cool to recreate the battle between the giant and the boy. To me, this Bible story means that no matter how big your problems are, God is always bigger.

