K. The Edutopia - kahuapa‘a - Ho‘opāne‘e

Dear Nawahi, I recently read a very brief news story about your school and successes you are seeing with your language immersion program. I'd like to learn more. Actually, I am contacting you in an official capacity. I work for Edutopia, which is the web content platform of the George Lucas Educational Foundation in California. We tell success stories about what is working in education in various parts of this country and the world. You can see examples of our work here: <https://www.edutopia.org/>. I would love to learn more about your school and to discuss the possibility of including Nawahi in our education coverage. We don't sell anything and we don't charge for our content. The Edutopia website is purely for the benefit of educators and education. Let me know if we can arrange a time to speak on the phone briefly. Many thanks. Peter Poutiatine Senior School Selection Coordinator, Edutopia
