

BENCHMARKS

October 13, 2016

Dear Students and Parents,

This is a reminder that your benchmarks in all classes except CP courses will be held next week, Oct 17th and 18th . Makeup exams for absent students will be held in your classes on October 20th and 21st . Benchmarks are assessments of what should have been learned up to this point, as aligned with the California standards (Common Core). These benchmarks are also known as MIDTERMS and in December, your benchmarks will in the form of your FINAL exams, for Semester 1. 9th through 12th grade are always expected to take midterms and final exams.

Please ensure you study and are prepared for your exams.

Respectfully,

A.R. Sims, Executive Director
