Whitehouse ISD School Board Meeting Summary

Whitehouse Independent School Board members heard a presentation detailing the Texas Education Agency's Accountability Rating System by Sonja Johnston, WISD district-wide testing coordinator and secondary math instructional consultant, during the September 14 board meeting. During the presentation, each campus principal also spoke about the achievements of their campus and outlined goals to address areas that need improvement.

In other business, the WISD board:

Approved the minutes, financial reports and donations;

Reviewed informational items including new hires and resignations and an update on accountability ratings;

Approved the annual review of investment policy and resolution to appoint investment officers and approve vendors to provide investment training;

Approved the 2015-16 compensation plan;

Approved the attendance committees for the 2015-16 school year;

Approved off-campus physical education providers.
