

TEACHING FELLOW OPPORTUNITIES AT OUR PROGRESSIVE AND HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL PUBLIC CHARTER SCHOOLS IN NEW YORK CITY

- ✓ Earn a full-time salary with excellent benefits, starting August 15, 2017.
- ✓ Earn a prestigious, affordable Master's degree (as little as $10,500 total, for NY State residents, based on 2016-17 SUNY tuition rates, including up to $6,000 tuition reimbursement from the charter school).
- ✓ Receive your degree from the State University of NY (SUNY Albany) in as quickly as 18 months (four courses on-line and six courses face-to-face, in the Bronx).
- ✓ Start coursework in June or September 2017. (Note: If you already have a Master's degree or are enrolled in another Master's program, you have the option of becoming a Teaching Fellow without enrolling in SUNY.)
- ✓ Work half the day in a classroom with an experienced instructor, and the other half, honing your teaching skills and subject matter expertise with other Fellows, under the guidance of our veteran Professional Development staff.
- ✓ Upon successful completion of the program, move into a regular, full-time teaching position on one of our two campuses in the north Bronx.

If interested, email a cover letter and your resume to:

We invite applications from persons who have or will have NY State teaching certification, as of September 2017.*

DISCOVER THE JOY OF TEACHING AND LEARNING

*Otherwise highly qualified candidates who have not obtained their NY State teaching certificate by that time may be accepted into our Fellows Program at an Associate level. We will upgrade Associates to full status once they have met all requirements for NY State certification.
