

Job-Embedded Licensing

Interested in teaching, but don't hold a teaching license? You may be eligible to teach on a practitioner, job-embedded license. This license will allow you to begin teaching while enrolled in a teacher preparation program through a local university. To be eligible you must:

- Hold a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university with at least a GPA of 2.75, AND
  - Hold a degree in the area you would like to teach
- OR
- Complete the specific licensure area Praxis exam in the subject you would like to teach. You can view required Praxis exams here: <http://www.ets.org/praxis/tn/requirements/>

Once you meet the above requirements, you can begin applying for position with Rutherford County Schools at www.rcschools.net. Upon recommendation for employment in a certified teaching position, our office will begin working with you on licensure under the job-embedded program.

For questions about the job-embedded program, please contact Leslie Duke, Certified HR Analyst, at 615-893-5812 ext. 22807 or dukele@rcschools.net
