Dear Parents/Guardians,

Internet safety curriculum will be taught to Elmore Park Middle School 7th Grade students on January 31, 2018. This curriculum will be presented by Bartlett City Schools' Resource Officer John White and Officer Jennifer Gafa, both of the Bartlett Police Department. The curriculum content is as follows:

- Inappropriate Content - Things you may not want teens seeing or posting online including pornography, excessive violence and hate speech.
- Online Privacy - The protection of teen's personal information such as passwords and phone numbers.
- Sexting - The use of cell phones to send sexual messages, pictures and videos.
- Online Sexual Solicitations - Unwanted requests to engage in sexual activities or talk, or any sexual request by an adult.
- Cyberbullying - The use of Internet technology or mobile technology, such as cell phones, to bully someone.

Curriculum is available for review online at:

Parents/Guardians who object to their child's participation in this program have the option of requesting that their child be exempted from this instruction by written request to Mr. Randall (email: erandall@bartlettschools.org). Your child's grades will not be affected by this exemption.

As always, we appreciate your assistance and support of our instructional program.

Sincerely,
