

Maeve Molloy is a strategy and operations consultant, currently serving the Private Equity and Financial Services industries as an Associate Director at SSA & Company. Previously, she worked abroad, as a strategy specialist for clients across the Middle East and Southeast Asia with Cedar Consulting. There, she advised clients on growth strategies, social enterprise development, market entry and partner search, competitive analysis, and risk profiling. Ms. Molloy received a B.S. in Economics from New York University where she completed an Economics thesis on the lifelong wages benefits of Career and Technical Education for high school students.