

HEALTH SERVICES

Guidelines: When to send a student to the Health Office and how to get them there.

Minor Issues:

- Cuts – use first aid kit, don't send to health office
- Scrapes - use first aid kit, don't send to health office
- bites
- vague not feeling well
- mild headache
- mild stomachache
- mild allergies
- rash
- mild nosebleed

Student does not need an escort

Moderate Issues:

- Sprain injury if able to walk
- vomiting
- moderate headache
- burn
- moderate nosebleed
- overheated

Student should be accompanied by another student or an adult

Major Issues:

- Slurred speech
- difficulty walking
- unconsciousness
- difficulty breathing
- head injury
- broken bone
- seizure
- food allergy
- back or neck injury
- dizziness

Health Office should be called to assist student

Special cases:

Student with diabetes who are not feeling well or who need to test outside of their normal times should ALWAYS be escorted to the Health Office.