

Madison Local Schools stand with
Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School

On March 14th, Madison Student Council encourages students and staff to wear maroon, burgundy, and silver—the colors of Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School. By wearing these colors, we will honor the victims and show support to those affected by the tragic school shooting that occurred on February 14th.