"Is there such thing as a perfect family?"

Come join a conversation about how our families can heal in the hurt and pray through the pain of life and family difficulties. Our families can be the place of strength for those moments through our practice of faith.

All in the family are invited to come.

We will have food, fellowship, prayer and powerful conversations that will be applicable to everyday life with all the members of your family.

She is devout in her faith and shares the Gospel whenever she gets the
