Lancaster High School Choir Students Receive Superior Ratings in UIL Regional Competition

Lancaster, TX/Lancaster ISD

The Lancaster High School Choir students received superior ratings in the concert portion of the UIL Regional contest this past weekend.

"Receiving a rating of superior is basically like my students exceeding expectations on the state standards—it's like doing very well on the TAKS," Fine Arts Coordinator and Choir Director Garry Williams said.

Choirs, bands, and orchestras all over Texas compete every year in the UIL Concert and Sight-Reading Concert. Each choir must sing two songs from the "Preferred Music List" published by UIL and one song of the director's choice. One of the three must be a cappella. All choirs are judged by a standard, not against any of the other choirs. The ratings a judge can give are I (Superior), II (Excellent), III (Good), IV (Poor), V (Should not have competed).
