NOTE: Comments from the Public: When addressing the Board, please state your name, address and affiliation. The Board welcomes comments from the public and values the input our stakeholders bring to the table. The President respectfully reminds all of us, this is not a forum for debate. The Board may choose to ask clarifying questions regarding expressed concern, but will not respond to the concern at the meeting. You can expect a timely response from the appropriate individual(s). Personnel matters cannot and will not be discussed in this forum.
