District Equity Statement

The Board of Education directs that all students enrolled in the schools of this district shall be afforded equal educational opportunities in strict accordance with the law. No students shall be denied access to or benefit from any educational program or activity or from a co-curricular or athletic activity on the basis of the student's race, color, creed, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation, gender, gender identity or expression, socioeconomic status, or disability. The Board directs the Superintendent to allocate faculty, administrators, support staff members, curriculum materials, and instructional equipment supplies among and between the schools and classes of this district in a manner, that ensures equivalency of educational opportunity throughout this district. The school district's curricula in the following areas will eliminate discrimination, promote mutual acceptance and respect among students, and enable students to interact effectively with others, regardless of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation, gender, gender identity or expression, socioeconomic status, or disability:

1. School climate/learning environment
2. Courses of study, including Physical Education
3. Instructional materials and strategies
4. Library materials
5. Software and audio-visual materials
6. Guidance and counseling
7. Extra-curricular programs and activities
8. Testing and other assessments.

Course Description

History of American Justice is a full year course in which eleventh and twelfth grade students are provided with an overview of the American justice system with a focus on contemporary issues. Students will analyze the values and rights of Americans set forth in the Constitution of the United States of America while also examining the legal practices of other nations. Students will also investigate social issues and think critically to explore new ways to reform and re-enforce current laws and legal practices. Students will be encouraged to engage in public speaking throughout the course and work in groups to foster social skills and team building.

Course Objectives:

- Increase awareness and understanding of legal rights held by all Americans
- Provide a historical framework of the American justice system
- Develop critical thinking and problem solving skills
- Develop a positive self-concept, build self-esteem, and move toward self-actualization.
- Promote awareness of current events
- Develop skills in research and writing
- Promote civic duty and social awareness

Potential Course Modifications (ELLs, Special Education, Gifted and Talented)

The teacher will determine, with the assistance of guidance counselors, teacher assistant/aides, educational specialists, and/or special education teachers, what modifications will be made for his/her students. Such examples of modifications can include, but not be limited to:

- Extended time as needed
- Modification of tests and quizzes
- Preferential seating
- Alternative/Formative assessment (projects)
- Effective teacher questioning (ranging from simple recall to higher order critical thinking questions)
- Supplemental materials
- Cooperative learning
- Teacher tutoring
- Peer tutoring
- Differentiated Instruction
