AMANDA CASHMAN WINS

2015 OUTSTANDING ART EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR!

We all know she is awesome, and her peers in the Art World think so, too. Ms. Cashman was recently awarded the Bill Poirier Mississippi Outstanding Art Educator of the Year for 2015. Candidates for this award included instructors from all levels, including college! In March, Ms. Cashman will journey to Chicago to attend the NAEA (National Art Education Association) Conference where she will be recognized and awarded again in the company of her fellow artists. A product of Catholic education, Ms. Cashman graduated from St. Aloysius in Vicksburg and then attended Millsaps College earning her undergraduate degree in Studio Art. Her knowledge and creativity play an instrumental part in assisting our STA teachers in the classroom. When you see Ms. Cashman, please give her a high five and congratulatory hug!!

"I love what I do because I get to do what I love." ~Amanda Cashman
We love you, Ms. Cashman!!

Christmas Around the World

Our Lower Elementary got their passports stamped in England, China, Italy, Sweden, Mexico and France as they experienced Christmas Around the World. They sampled Buche de Noel in France, Lucia Buns in Sweden, and drank Wassail in England. They also made the Star of Bethlehem in Italy and constructed paper lanterns in China. What a day!
