

Honor Roll certificates are generated at the end of each marking period for students who meet the following academic criteria:

- All A's and B's in core classes with no more than two B's
- All A's and B's in Related Arts and Physical Education/Health classes in any combination

Honor Roll certificates, along with Student of the Marking Period certificates, are usually presented to students at team assemblies that are held toward the start of each new marking period.