SPBS Alumni
“SPOTLIGHT”

SPBS Learning Expectation Pledge

As a St Paschal student I pledge:
To be an active, Catholic Christian
To study diligently
To respect others
To strive for self-control
To appreciate the beauty in the fine arts
To be fair.

Father Dave Heney - SPBS Class of 1966
Our Lady Queen of the Angels Seminary
St. John's Seminary College - Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy
St. John's Theology School - Masters of Divinity
USC - Masters in Marriage and Family Therapy
Started the University Series
Visiting Research Fellow at Notre Dame University in 2015

“When I returned to St. Paschal Baylon as pastor in 2002 through 2014, I was immensely happy to see how SPBS had progressed from my time there in the 1960s to the cutting edge of dynamic modern educational practices today.”

Meredith Dunavin - SPBS Class of 1983
St. Bonaventure High School
Mother of two SPBS alumni and was an active volunteer when her children attended the school
Current SPBS Kindergarten Teacher Aide

“St. Paschal’s is my home and part of who I am...I have a lot of memories...from being a student myself, to my children being students, and now to working here. I feel very blessed.”

Vivian Dang - SPBS Class of 2011
Louisville High School
Currently attending Yale University (class of 2019) Majoring in Biomedical Engineering
Plans to go into business in the cosmetics industry and eventually to business school

“My favorite thing about SPBS was my class and how close we all were... and the amazing, supportive teachers.”

Brandon Flannery - SPBS Class of 2006
Oak Christian 2010
Graduated UC Berkeley 2013 in 3 years with a double major Applied Mathematics and Statistics
Working in San Francisco for a hedge fund company

“ My best memories come from the 8th grade basketball team, I’ve never been part of a more close-knit group of guys. We are still good friends to this day. Even though we lost the championship game, that season was one of the most thrilling times of my life and I’m certain the rest of the team would agree.”
As a St Paschal student I pledge: To respect others

Matthew Parra - SPBS Class of 1988
Thousand Oaks High School
6 years United States Air Force
18 years FAA Air Traffic Controller
Works with children at orphanages in Tijuana

“My favorite thing about SPBS was meeting lifelong friends.”

As a St Paschal student I pledge: To strive for self-control

Elizabeth Roland - SPBS Class of 2004
La Reina High School
St. Mary’s College of California
Degree in Women’s and Gender Studies and History
Director at Autism Speaks Los Angeles

“My favorite thing about SPBS was the strong sense of community.”

Maria Husband - SPBS Class of 1988
Chaminade High School (In Sports Hall Of Fame)
University of California Santa Barbara
Communications Major with Minor In Sports Management
4 year starter on UCSB softball team and scholar athlete for 2 of those years

“My favorite things about SPBS were the special friends I made and families I met.”
Current SPBS parent

As a St Paschal student I pledge: To appreciate the beauty in the fine arts

Tim Languist - SPBS Class of 1986
Thousand Oaks High School
United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, MD.
Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, CA. - Master of Science in Operations Research
Sergeant with the Ventura County Sheriff’s Office

“My favorite thing about SPBS was being able to make my Confirmation with all of my classmates in 8th grade after learning and growing in our faith together.”
Current SPBS parent

Jeremiah Schaeffer - SPBS Class of 2000
Santa Margarita Catholic High School
OTIS College of Art and Design
Bachelor of Fine Arts in Graphic Design
Graphic designer in the Franchise Creative Group at DreamWorks
Currently working on branding and design for Jurassic World: Fallen Kingdom
Designed the current SPBS logo

“My favorite thing about SPBS was my favorite person...Mrs. Horak!”

Matthew Masino - SPBS Class of 2011
Chaminade College Prep
Columbia College Chicago (Class of 2013)
Theatre Directing BFA, Management Minor
Production Stage Manager for Columbia’s Caroline, or Change directed by Adam Goldstein
Will be directing second production at Columbia, Wolves by Steve Yockey

“My favorite memory from my time at Saint Paschal’s was acting as Scar in "Hakunamatata" (The Lion King) my eighth grade year. It was a really great experience and a fantastic start to my theatrical education.”

As a St Paschal student I pledge: To be fair.

Shane Maguire - SPBS Class of 1993
Thousand Oaks High School
University of California San Diego - BS in Management Science and BA Political Science
University of Notre Dame - Juris Doctor
Attorney - Labor and Employment Law and Commercial Litigation

“My favorite thing about SPBS was the close knit community and the opportunity to compete in sports against other Catholic schools.”
Current SPBS parent

Neal Maguire - SPBS Class of 1993
Thousand Oaks High School
University of California San Diego - BA in Political Science
University of Chicago Law - Juris Doctor
Land Use and Water Attorney

“My favorite thing about SPBS was playing volleyball for Mrs. Suwara.”
Current SPBS parent