School Happenings

- Congratulations to Mrs. Kristin Steely who was selected by her peers for October's Employee Spotlight. Mrs. Steely is the life skills teacher on our campus and she also sponsors the Interact Club which is the largest organization at the high school. She does a great job with our students and she is a valued employee on our campus.
- Mrs. Stanaland will host a "College and Career Fair" at the end of the month. Once again there will be representatives from local colleges, trade schools, and businesses. The middle school will sponsor the hospitality room for the presenters. Slocum High School and Grapeland High School students will attend the event as well.
- The PSAT and TSI test was administered on campus to our high school students.
- Mrs. Stanaland led a financial aid workshop this month. There was also a representative from TVCC on hand to help students and parents with their FAFSA.
- Jenna Holloway was recognized by the Kiwanas International Club as the "Sophomore of the Year" at their meeting in October. She will receive a $600 scholarship for college from the club.
