

Glenwood Elementary School Behavior Rules

Matrix

Positive Behavior, Intervention and Support (PBIS) is a research-based, data-driven plan that teaches students & staff positive behaviors for success at school, home and in the community. The three Rs stand for Respect, Responsibility and Ready Learners. We all have these gifts of character to support learning and teaching in a positive school community.

Behavior Rules	You show Respect when you...	You show Responsibility when you...	You are a Ready Learner when you...
Cafeteria	Use your manners, saying, "Please, thank you & may I please be excused." Visit quietly with your neighbors next to you while eating your lunch. Behave & speak kindly to all students & adults.	Stand in line quietly with hands & feet to yourself. Eat your food. Raise your hand for help. Ask politely to go to bathroom. Stay in your seat until dismissed. Walk quietly to recess.	Walk at all times. Pay attention to signals and directions. Stay seated with knees under the table. Wait quietly to be excused. Clean up after yourself.
Classrooms	Enter & leave classroom quietly. Listen & look at speaker. Give others quiet & space to do their best. Be courteous & treat others with kindness. Have a great attitude. Make good choices.	Do your best. Follow directions. Take your education seriously. Admit to mistakes & apologize. Do your part for the good of the whole class. Ask for help when needed.	Be on time. Bring materials to class. Stay focused. Keep trying even if it gets difficult. Follow rules, make good choices & use self-control. Plan & organize yourself. Give your best to your work & others.

Glenwood Elementary School Behavior Rules

Matrix

Positive Behavior, Intervention and Support (PBIS) is a research-based, data-driven plan that teaches students & staff positive behaviors for success at school, home and in the community. The three Rs stand for Respect, Responsibility and Ready Learners. We all have these gifts of character to support learning and teaching in a positive school community.

Behavior Rules	You show Respect when you...	You show Responsibility when you...	You are a Ready Learner when you...
Office	Enter quietly. Wait your turn to speak. Say "please" and "thank you". Work & sit quietly. Bring an Office Pass with you.	Know why you are visiting the office. Wait quietly for someone to help you. Follow directions and stay in your seat.	Enter quietly. Have information you need to help us solve your problem. Share information in an accurate manner. Keep hands & feet to yourself.

Glenwood Elementary School Behavior Rules

Matrix

Positive Behavior, Intervention and Support (PBIS) is a research-based, data-driven plan that teaches students & staff positive behaviors for success at school, home and in the community. The three Rs stand for Respect, Responsibility and Ready Learners. We all have these gifts of character to support learning and teaching in a positive school community.

Behavior Rules Apply at All Locations	You show Respect when you. . .	You show Responsibility when you. . .	You are a Ready Learner when you. . .

Glenwood Elementary School Behavior Rules

Matrix

Positive Behavior, Intervention and Support (PBIS) is a research-based, data-driven plan that teaches students & staff positive behaviors for success at school, home and in the community. The three Rs stand for Respect, Responsibility and Ready Learners. We all have these gifts of character to support learning and teaching in a positive school community.

Library	Listen quietly without bothering your neighbor during story time. Keep low-volume voices at all times. (K-1st graders read out loud). Be patient &amp; wait your turn for questions &amp; help. Behave calmly &amp; politely. Always walk.	Care for library materials, computers &amp; keep them free from damage. Return books on time. Keep library materials in a safe, secure place while checked out to you. Take the time to find a “good-fit” book. Re-shelve books you don’t choose to proper location. Return chairs to original position.	Stay seated, quiet &amp; alert. Return books to the library before library time begins. Have books ready for librarian to scan. Raise a quiet hand to ask for help. Focus on reading or looking for a book.
Behavior Rules Apply to All Locations	You Show Respect When You...	You Show Responsibility When You...	You are a Ready Learner When You...

Glenwood Elementary School Behavior Rules

Matrix

Positive Behavior, Intervention and Support (PBIS) is a research-based, data-driven plan that teaches students & staff positive behaviors for success at school, home and in the community. The three Rs stand for Respect, Responsibility and Ready Learners. We all have these gifts of character to support learning and teaching in a positive school community.

Gym Assemblies	Pay attention to speaker. Sit quietly on bottom. Applaud with hands only.	Enter & Leave quietly. Help neighbors stay on task.	Clap only when appropriate. Sit quietly. Listen Actively. Pick up personal items when you leave.
Bathrooms	Use soft voices. Respect others' space & privacy. Use equipment and supplies respectfully. Wait outside if crowded.	Use the facilities quickly, flush toilet once, wash and dry hands. Put used towels in trash. Be courteous. Leave when done. Keep bathroom neat & clean.	Use bathroom closest to your room. Leave when done. Keep feet on the floor and use restroom properly. Keep water in sink. Always walk.

Glenwood Elementary School Behavior Rules

Matrix

Positive Behavior, Intervention and Support (PBIS) is a research-based, data-driven plan that teaches students & staff positive behaviors for success at school, home and in the community. The three Rs stand for Respect, Responsibility and Ready Learners. We all have these gifts of character to support learning and teaching in a positive school community.

Behavior Rules Apply to All Locations	You Show Respect When You...	You Show Responsibility When You...	You are a Ready Learner When You...
Playground	Play fair, share & follow the rules. Include everyone who wants to play. Treat others as you want to be treated. Be kind, caring, and invite others to play. Help anyone not being treated with respect. Apologize for accidents.	Play safely within boundaries. Be aware. Look out for safety of yourself & others. Control your words & actions. Use equipment correctly, take care of it & put it back when you're done.	Have a positive attitude & smile. Maintain control of your attitude, language & body. Be safe. Play one-hand tag on grass. Throw balls only below waist level and on the grass only. Use the bathroom & drink water before the bell rings. Freeze at the bell, listen for the whistle, & then walk to your line.
Hallways	Voices off or very soft. Keep hands & feet to yourself. Arms to sides in lines. Respect & enjoy displays with your eyes.	Go directly where you need to be. Be on time. Voices off or very soft. Take care of our school.	Stay in quiet class line with arms to sides. Walk on the right side of the hallway. Keep hands & feet to yourself.

Glenwood Elementary School Behavior Rules

Matrix

Positive Behavior, Intervention and Support (PBIS) is a research-based, data-driven plan that teaches students & staff positive behaviors for success at school, home and in the community. The three Rs stand for Respect, Responsibility and Ready Learners. We all have these gifts of character to support learning and teaching in a positive school community.

Behavior Rules Apply to All Locations	You Show Respect When You...	You Show Responsibility When You...	You Show Readiness When You...
Arrival to School	Follow the same rules & behavior expectations for the playground, hallway, and cafeteria. Line up quietly for class. Be on time. Keep areas clean and litter free. Be kind to other students & visitors.	Walk directly to the cafeteria for breakfast or to the playground until the bell rings. Freeze at the bell, listen for the whistle & line up for your teacher. Use respectful language, courteous behavior and follow the dress code.	Use crosswalks & sidewalks. Walk bikes & scooters on campus. Lock your bikes in the bike area. Go straight to the cafeteria or playground until the bell rings to freeze & line up. Stay & play only in supervised areas. Arrive on time.
Dismissal After School	Line up for the bus as school supervisor requests. Walk quietly. Wait for trusted adult to escort you safely across the street.	When dismissal bell rings, walk directly to your destination. Wait on campus for parents to pick you up, walk straight home or report to your START teacher.	If you ride the bus, line up with Glenwood staff at the stairs next to Room TK. Always use crosswalk and sidewalks. Walk bikes & scooters off campus.

Glenwood Elementary School Behavior Rules

Matrix

Positive Behavior, Intervention and Support (PBIS) is a research-based, data-driven plan that teaches students & staff positive behaviors for success at school, home and in the community. The three Rs stand for Respect, Responsibility and Ready Learners. We all have these gifts of character to support learning and teaching in a positive school community.

Behavior Rules Apply to All Locations	You Show Respect When You...	You Show Responsibility When You...	You Show Readiness When You...
On School Bus	Line up quietly and safely. Walk quietly and quickly to find a seat. Listen respectfully to the bus driver. Raise a quiet hand for questions or help.	Wait on time for the bus to arrive, lined up with all your materials. Follow the bus driver's directions. Sit in your seat facing straight ahead with your legs in front of you, keeping your hands & feet to yourself.	Walk carefully and quietly up the stairs of the bus. Find a seat quickly & place your backpack on your lap or on the floor. Stay in your seat & keep the aisle clear with hands & feet to yourself. Use quiet voices.