Dress code issues	I/D/A	Preview of final wording for dress code and visuals designed to support dress code. The agreed upon changes to the dress code: (1) ripped jeans will be allowed as long as tears are below the mid-thigh; (2) shorts must be at mid-thigh or longer; (3) leggings allowed but must be worn with blouses or shirts or dresses of mid-thigh length or longer; (4) razorback tops will be allowed as long as no cleavage or undergarments are visible. (Proper undergarments to include bandeaus, strapless bras, tank tops). Blouses/dresses with spaghetti straps will not be addressed at this time. Therefore, the rule for at least 1" straps is still in effect as part of the dress code. Student reps have agreed to bring examples of allowed/not allowed garments when the new dress code is introduced to the student body in January.	Group	15 min
Budget 2017-18	I/D	Preview of KMS 2017-2018 Financial Plan. The 2017-2018 Financial Plan was reviewed and discussed. The council looked at the total budget by category (i.e. certificated, classified, casual, expenses, equipment) and by plan (i.e. student success, staff success, success of support systems). It was shared that the state may be allocating an extra $80,000 which could be used for support in remedial math, an smp / refocus classroom, or counselor.	Alan	20 Min
