- 20 No School Presidents Day

A Quick Note...

DPMS has raised concerns over Summit families using their parking lot to drop off/pick due to disrespect to school property. Please obey all traffic sign and remind students we want to be good neighbors and keep access open to the DPMS property.

Literacy Night Better Together

Local husband-wife authors Mark and Caralyn Beuhner, famous for Snowmen at Night and other great children's books, delighted the audience at Summit's annual Literacy Night held January 23rd. Following the Buehners' presentation, parents and children got to choose from seven workshops that encouraged reading, writing and connecting as a family. The first 100 children to arrive got to choose a free book donated by KUED while a Scholastic Book Fair was also held to benefit the school.
