If you will be submitting Christian Service hours for evaluation from a previous school, it is the transfer student's responsibility for requesting that his or her previous school send documentation of hours to AHS Office of Campus Ministry. When these records arrive, the Director of Campus Ministry will call in the transfer student, review the records, and give credit for those hours that fulfill AHS criteria.

REQUIRED SIGNATURES

We have read the materials concerning the AHS Christian Service Program and understand its implementation and the procedures needed for documenting hours. We also understand that this program is a graduation requirement and that only students who complete this program are eligible for graduation from AHS.
