FRANKLIN LAKES PUBLIC SCHOOLS

presents:

OLWEUS Bullying Prevention Program

The NJ Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights, now more than 5 years old, created legislature to combat Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying in our public schools. Franklin Lakes has always been committed to keeping bullying out of our schools through Character Education and the Olweus Bullying Prevention Program, which work to create and maintain a positive school climate.

To better understand how the Franklin Lakes Public Schools harness the Olweus Bullying Prevention program to create and maintain positive school climates, please join our Child Assistance Counselors for an overview and Q&A on the following dates:

- Wednesday, April 13th at 6:30 PM - Elementary School session facilitated by elementary counselors
- Thursday, April 14th at 6:30PM – Middle School session facilitated by middle school counselors
