

Stay current with NEWSELA

NEWSELA is a free website that uses the daily news to help build reading comprehension. This website allows you to choose any article and change the Lexile to meet your child's needs. The articles even have quizzes and a writing prompt. To get unlimited access to read and explore you must sign up. Follow the steps below to sign up and get started using NEWSELA.

1. Create an account on www.newsela.com by clicking on SIGN UP.

2. Chose I'm an Educator. Answer the following question, then sign up through Google or by providing your first and last name, email and a password.
3. Click Get Started to see the articles.
4. Once you click on an article to read you can adjust the Lexile, take a quiz, and/or respond to a writing prompt by clicking in the blue bar located on the right of the article.

5. You can also search for articles based on a key word using the search bar located at the top of the page.
6. Articles are also archived and grouped by general topic. To explore these articles, click on ARTICLES located at the top of the screen and then choose a category.
