

DANCING QUEENS

The Perfect Night Together

Gillian Ambroe and Ashley Barmoy, class of 2018
3/27/18

The annual winter formal is a special time of year for all of the upperclassmen, but for the girls this dance especially means a lot to them. Hours of preparation go into getting ready for the dance and getting the perfect look for the night.

Sophomore Dani Cramer explains just how long it took her to get ready, “It took me around three hours to get ready; from my hair appointment, makeup, and dress.” Going to a variety of different stores and searching for that perfect dress is what these girls did for weeks before the dance. When these girls do find the perfect dress it’s truly a Cinderella moment for them. Even though some people found the perfect dress, Senior Hailey Giuffrre’s search didn’t go so smoothly, “I looked around at a lot of different options, and i’m not going to lie, I ultimately wasn’t too thrilled with the dress I ended up wearing but it was on sale!”

Prior to the day of the dance as people are finishing up their final preparations, there were many hours the senior class spent preparing and setting up the dance weeks before. Senior Sarah Polacek says “It took us weeks of planning and six hours to set up the night before, however we blew up balloons and they were all deflated for the dance.” These seniors who set up for the dance made sure that everything was picture perfect and ready for the dance. ■
