GETTING INVOLVED/ COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Whether it's finding fun things to do, making connections or learning how to get involved we will open up a whole new side of our community during this fun and informative hour.

Presented by Christine Haggard, Community Organizer, HHS/PH and Pam Lewis, City of Anderson Parks & Recreation

Thursday, March 22nd, 5:30-6:30pm

Meadow Lane Cafeteria, 2770 Balls Ferry Road

- LEARN HOW TO GIVE BACK TO YOUR COMMUNITY
- LEARN TO FIND YOUR VOICE AND HAVE IT BE HEARD
- LEARN HOW TO GAIN VALUABLE WORK EXPERIENCE
- LEARN TO MAKE THOSE SOCIAL CONNECTIONS
- LEARN HOW TO FIND FUN THINGS TO DO IN ANDERSON

Light refreshments are provided at workshops. Classes are for parents or adults. Registration is not required, but is appreciated. If you need child care or Spanish interpretation, you must call and preregister.

Please call, Christa Arthur, Community Liaison, at (530) 351-4285 to sign up for child care, Spanish translation, or more information about our spring classes or Parent University.
