Section VIII – Signature Statement

ORANGEBURG CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL DISTRICT THREE CRIMINAL RECORDS CHECK CONSENT FORM

Orangeburg County Consolidated School District Three will obtain a criminal records report as part of the District's pre-employment background investigation of your application. This report must be received before you may be further considered for employment with the District. The District will maintain the report in confidence. By your signature below, you authorize the District to obtain this report. Orangeburg County Consolidated School District Three may consider any conviction which appears on that report as justification to not extend an offer of employment when the District determines that the nature of the offense which led to the conviction renders you an unsuitable applicant for the position for which you have applied. The District generally will not consider any convictions which have been annulled or expunged in determining whether to extend an offer of employment.

By completing an application for employment with Orangeburg County Consolidated School District Three, if I am offered a position and accept that position, I agree to abide by all policies as set forth by the Orangeburg County Consolidated School District Three Board of Education. By my signature, I authorize representatives of Orangeburg County Consolidated School District Three to fully investigate all of the information as set forth in this application, and I understand that District representatives may contact my references, my previous employers, my schools attended, court officials, and law enforcement authorities. I also understand that if I have provided any inaccurate information, or omitted any information, from this application, that may be the basis for the District not to make an offer to me, or, if I am already employed when the misstatement or omission is discovered, to immediately terminate my employment.
