The current language as outlined in Article 20, Section E is deleted as written. The new language as agreed to between the Association and Board shall be inserted as follows and become effective this date: March 28, 2018

Section E:

In an effort to support the professional development of the staff, the district shall offer paid summer professional development opportunities. The schedule of summer professional development will be posted by June 15th and will be for pay, for hours towards the early release day in May or a combination of both pay and hours at the employees' discretion. After that posting, other opportunities for summer professional development may be posted and at the Administration's discretion will either be designated as a choice of pay, early release time, or a combination of both pay and early release time. Out of district professional development will not be compensated at an hourly rate of pay.
