Regular School Schedule Resumes

Baker School District is pleased to announce that regular school activities will resume Thursday, January 25. Baker City Police have determined there is no longer a perceived threat to Baker schools. All classes, sport practices, activities and transportation routes will proceed as normal.

A media statement regarding the details surrounding today's Code Yellow Lockout has been issued by Chief Lohner and placed on school and district websites and facebook pages for parent convenience.

We would like to express our gratitude to Chief Lohner and our law enforcement partners for their dedication to the safety of our schools and students. We would also like to recognize school staff, transportation staff and administrators for their quick work ensuring students remained safe and accounted for throughout the lockout procedure.

These kind of situations cannot be fully anticipated nor practiced for. We appreciate the patience of cooperation of parents and students during this event.

About Baker 5J School District

Nationally recognized Baker School District 5J (BSD) in Baker City, OR, is the largest of three rural school districts in Baker County, serving 1,700 students and employing over 110 educators and staff.
