

Vallivue School District 139

The legal name of this school district will be Vallivue School District No.139, Canyon County, State of Idaho. The administrative offices of the school district are located at 5207 S. Montana Avenue, Caldwell, ID 83607.

Legal Status

The legal status of the school district is as follows:

1. All of the authority, which resides with the Board of Trustees has been given it by the states. Fundamentally, education is a statewide business and trustees are agents of the state who look at the state for authorization to act.
2. The district was validly organized as a Class C School District No. 139 pursuant to an election held July 26, 1960. It became a high school operating district designated as Class A School District No. 139 by the State Board of Education effective August 15, 1961, and was thereby authorized to establish a high school. The term Class A was deleted for all school districts by the 1963 Legislature and the official name became Canyon School District No. 139. On January 20, 1986, the school district board of trustees approved renaming the district Vallivue School District No. 139, and on March 6, 1986, the State Board of Education approved the official name change from Canyon School District No. 139 to Vallivue School District No. 139 to be effective July 1, 1986.
3. As provided by Section 33-3301, Idaho Code, the district is a body corporate, and in its corporate capacity may sue and be sued and may acquire, hold, and convey real and personal property necessary to its establishment, extension and existence. It shall have the authority to issue negotiable coupon bonds and incur such other debt, in the amounts and manner as provided by law.
