The guidance counselor is a unique and integral member of the educational community. As a team, counselors, teachers and administrators share the responsibility to assist young people in preparing for the challenges of adult life. The counselor's primary commitment is to help the student realize his/her potential academically, personally and socially.

A Counselor is someone you can talk to....

What does a counselor do?

- Helps students when they have schedule questions, problems or changes
- Helps students to work out problems with school, with friends, and/or with personal matters
- Makes classroom presentations about things like bullying, staying healthy, and making good choices
- Provides intervention in times of crisis
- Are advocates for all youth
- Assists in developing and manages the master schedule

Our belief...

An excellent school counseling program ensures that the importance of each student is recognized. Therefore, the Seitz Middle School Counseling Department will make a concerted effort to communicate and demonstrate our concerns and commitment for each student who passes through our buildings doors. As a result, each student will feel valued as a member of our school community.

Our department will work hard to:

- Provide each student with a safe and caring environment that enables them to develop appropriate educational and career goals.
- Collaboratively monitor the social and emotional wellness of each student and deliver personalized services for each student as needed.
- Provide support to students and their families.
- Serve as an advocate for all students at Seitz Middle School.
