

Living On A Dollar A Day

Nombre:

What surprised you about the people living in extreme poverty?

What do the lives of Rosa, Anthony and Chino make you think about your own life?

What do you think were three of the hardest things for Zach, Chris, Sean and Ryan that could have kept them from going to Guatemala?

What do you think Zach, Chris, Sean and Ryan gained by living on $1 a day themselves in this community, instead of just reading about it?

What is something in your life that you now think about differently after watching this film?

After watching this film, why do you think that Chino, Rosa, and Anthony are still living in extreme poverty? What do you think are some of the things holding them back?

What other questions do you now have about poverty, microfinance, or the lives of people around the world?
