

CATHOLIC COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
Los Angeles

The Catholic Community Foundation of Los Angeles was established in 2014 at the request of Archbishop José H. Gomez in order to build resources for Catholic causes and teach philanthropy to multiple generations.

The Catholic Community Foundation of Los Angeles was established in 2014 at the request of Archbishop José H. Gomez in order to build resources for Catholic causes and teach philanthropy to multiple generations.

CCF-LA provides professional philanthropy management services to individuals and support to our communities through the investment, management, and granting of funds to deserving and socially responsible causes. Clients of CCF-LA can establish and recommend how, when, and where their donated funds are distributed to charitable causes. It's your philanthropy, managed in a professional, transparent, and faith-based setting.

Endowments | Scholarships | Donor-Advised Funds

In addition to the immediate tax benefit of making a charitable donation, CCF-LA can provide its clients with:

- advantages in tax filing and liabilities
- investing and management of charitable dollars
- personalized granting services
- multi-generational philanthropic planning
- giving that extends beyond your lifetime

For more information, please contact Tiffany Buntoengsuk at (213) 426-1202.

CCF-LA is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization independent of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Guided by the goals of our local Catholic community, it currently serves almost exclusively Catholic clients from across the Los Angeles region.

