Purchase orders or additional work requisitions are intended as a supplement to this quotation and can not be used in changing or modifying information provided in this quotation. Floor finishing work is provided for labor and supplies as described above. While every attempt will be made to identify existing issues on the floor that could create aesthetic or bond issues it is the responsibility of the General Contractor and/or owner to ensure that the surface to be cleaned and finished is visually inspected and questions or issues are discussed and resolved prior to our work commencing. Due to the extraordinary use of athletic floors and the multitude of cleaners and chemicals used in their regular maintenance Classic Sport Floors will not be held responsible for appropriate chemical handling or chipping of any finish materials. Agreement by acceptance of this quotation or offering a purchase order or work requisition shall act as acknowledgment that these terms are agreeable to the General Contractor or owner.
