

Call to Order: A meeting of the Copper Canyon Elementary Community Council was held in the school library on 1/10/2012 at 6PM

Attendance: Shannon Bigelow (Parent-Chair), Jack Cowan (Teacher-Chair), Robyn Handley (PTA President), Clint Spindler (Administrator), Betsy Bodrero (Teacher), Yvonne Turner (Parent), Annika Crump (Parent), Jennifer Lords (Parent)

Review of Minutes from November 8, 2011 Meeting: Shannon Bigelow moved to accept the minutes. Yvonne Turner seconded.

Clint Spindler presented the Teacher Needs Assessment Survey. The council reviewed the surveys. Teacher requests for budget allocation were listed and discussed:

Literacy Aide for Kindergarten

Collaboration time

Prep time

PLC training and analysis

Technology including mounting projectors and smart boards.

Guided reading books for Kindergarten

Common Core training

Training on Special Education and when to refer

Math manipulatives

Science supplies

ENCORE

AmeriCorps

Cell/ExCII

Coyote Camps

Mr Spindler noted that the approximate current allocation for ENCORE and Americorp totals near $26,100.

Council Discussed possible additional sources of tutoring help and funding:

LDS Missionaries service hours

NHS volunteers from the high schools

Title 1/Homeless funding allocations

Corporate or government grants

Review of Ongoing Assignments:

Terry North and Yvonne Turner to develop a survey for parents, assisted by Linda Clegg to determine whether workshops for parents on math and homework skills would be beneficial and welcomed.

Jack Cowan and Jennifer Lords to look into whether volunteer service at the school would be possible from LDS Missionaries.
