Summit Academy High School Welcomes New Principal

BLUFFDALE, UT—August 9, 2017—Summit Academy High School, a tuition-free, public charter school serving students in grades 9-12, proudly announces the hire of their new principal, Ms. Natalie Call. Ms. Call brings thirty-two years of educational experience. She will also serve as the director for the high school.

Ms. Call's experience includes teaching for the Weber County School District, Laramie County #1 School District, Jordan School District, and Sevier District before being appointed the principal of Sage Creek Elementary in Nebo School District. Most recently, Ms. Call was honored by Nebo District as the Distinguished Principal of the Year, Literary Principal/school of the year and Human Resource Principal of the Year.

"Words can't even describe my excitement for this new opportunity as principal and director of Summit Academy High School!" said Ms. Call. "You will find that my door will always be open and I welcome anyone to stop by and visit. Summit Academy High School has so many great students and I'm looking forward to meeting them all."

Mr. Tyler Whittle, principal of Summit Academy K-8 in Draper, will now also serve as director over the three K-8 campuses located in Draper and Bluffdale. The Draper K-8 campus is Summit Academy's flagship school which began nearly fourteen years ago. In order to help support this campus as Mr. Whittle serves as both Principal and K-8 Director, two assistant principals have been assigned to the Draper campus. The new assistant principals are Mrs. Karen Johnson and Mr. Gary Tucker. Both Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Tucker have several years of professional educational experience. Previous assistant principal of the Draper campus, Mrs. Erin McRae, will resume her position as assistant principal at Summit Academy High School and will work alongside Ms. Call.
