Dress Code at Cornelius Elementary School: 2011-2012

Most Frequently Asked Questions

Is the Dress Code mandatory?

-Yes. All the students at Cornelius Elementary School should follow the Cornelius Dress Code.

What type of shirts is permitted?

-Shirts with a collar and turtlenecks.

Are students allowed to wear denim clothes?

-No. Students should not wear blue jeans or any other denim clothes.

Are T-shirts permitted?

-No. The only exception is every Friday when students are allowed to wear their Cornelius Elementary t-shirt, but must have uniform bottoms. We will also have one Friday per month of free dress where all students are excused from wearing uniforms.

Are sweaters permitted in class?

-Sweaters of one of the colors of the Dress Code are permitted. Sweater with buttons, zippers, round collars and V-neck should be worn over a shirt in agreement with the Dress Code. Turtlenecks can be worn alone.

Are shirts with colored embroidery or patterns around the sleeves or neck permitted?

-All shirts should be of one solid color of the Dress Code. Colored embroidery, patterns or stripes on any part of the shirt are not acceptable.

Will there be school days that students do NOT have to wear uniforms?

-Yes. This year we will have Free Dress Fridays and all students will be excused from wearing uniforms.

Should belts be used?

- Belts are not required. That is a decision for the parents. Long belts or metal buckles however, are not acceptable.

When is the Dress Code in effect?

-The Dress Code is in effect during the school day and during activities after class that start before 4pm.
