

Farmersville ISD would like to welcome Coach Brandon Hankins as the new Athletic Director. Coach Hankins come from Kemp ISD

- Kemp High School (3A) 2011-Present

- 13-2 State Semi Finalist 2017

- 6-3A Co-District Champions

Athletic Director/Head Football-Bi District Finalist 2015/2016

Has broken numerous school records for wins in a season and 5-0 start (first time since 1953) 13 Wins 2017, Broke every track record and football record held at the school, Head Baseball Coach-2012/2013/2014 Bi-District Finalist, CO-Defensive Coordinator, District Teacher of the Year Henderson County Football Coach of the Year 2016/2017

- Ferris High School (4A) 2005-2011

Assistant Athletic Director//Defensive Coordinator/Secondary

Broke the state's longest losing record and built football program that is continuing to win.

Head Baseball Coach/ won 65 games which was more than the previous 4 years combined/Ellis County Baseball Coach of the Year 2010, Football District Staff of the Year 2007/2010/2011

Coach Hankins has been married to the love of his life Haley for 10 years and they have three children. Haley is a Certified Registered Nurse, Brylee is 8 years old, Ella is 5 years old and Son Brock is 22 months.

“ I feel like my strength is building relationships with kids, community, parents and staff. I treat every person the same. I hold each accountable as well as myself. I grew up in a coaching family so this profession is second nature to me.”

Some of Coach Hankins hobbies are spending time with Family, Church volunteer, working out, hunting, fishing and camping.

Coach Hankins is a graduate of Waxahachie ISD, some of his accomplishments as a player are

- 1st Team All-District Football player 1998-1999
- Baseball District MVP 1996/97/98/99
- All State Baseball player 1996-1999
- Who's who Among American High School Athletes 1996-1999
- Played College Baseball for OU and Texas State
- All American and All Conference Selection 2002/2003

Coach Hankins went on to Graduate from University of Oklahoma in 1999-2003(Baseball Scholarship-Transferred) Texas State University in 2004 with a BS Exercise and Sports Science.

Please help us Welcome Coach Hankins and his family to Farmersville ISD!