BRIEF COURSE DESCRIPTION:

According to the California Department of Education's grade 7 social studies framework: Students in grade seven emphasize individual and cooperative learning to develop an understanding of the great empires of the Medieval world. Students studying world history and geography during Medieval and early modern times, will uncover the past and examine the social, cultural and technological changes that occurred in Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Americas in the years 44 BC-AD1789.

The California State Standards for Grade 7 History-Social Science are covered through the study of the following subject areas:

- Basic Concepts of World Geography
- Expansion and Disintegration of the Roman Empire
- Islam in the Middle Ages
- Sub-Saharan Civilizations of Ghana and Mali in Medieval Africa
- China in the Middle Ages
- Medieval Japan
- Medieval Europe
- Diffusion of the Renaissance
- Developments of the Reformation
- Meso-American and Andean Civilizations
- Scientific Revolution and the Age of Exploration
- Political and Economic Change in Europe

STUDENT READING COMPONENT:

McDougal-Littell textbooks and teacher materials provide students with a variety of written forms: Primary Sources, Starting with a Story, Expository Text, Anthology, Stories in History series, California Standards Enrichment Workbook, and Reading Study Guide. In addition, reading instruction including reading strategies, language development and reading comprehension is included at the start of each lesson. Standards-based unit assessments will be given to measure student knowledge and understanding of concepts.

STUDENT WRITING COMPONENT:

Students will complete a variety of written work expressing their knowledge and understanding of grade 7 history-social science standards. Students will use writing to describe, explain, analyze, make predictions, create comparisons, and draw conclusions. Students will be assessed in writing to show their knowledge and understanding of the grade 7 social studies standards.

STUDENT ORAL COMPONENT:

Students will complete a variety of formal and informal oral presentations expressing their knowledge and understanding of the grade 7 history-social science standards. Students may be assessed orally as well.
