Jefferson Yin: The Board of Education Meeting held on April 25 discussed of the price increase on lunches for the next year. The district has not increased their lunch prices for a decade, so this will be a new movement to make sure the district has enough money due to increased minimum wage. Breakfast will be $2.50 from $2, and lunch will be $5.00 instead of $4.50. The district food program will also be providing sushi as a lunch option next year. There will also be a new website imposed for all schools active in August 2017 through Edlio designs. Teachers have been advised to save their Fusion page items into a Google Folder until they have accessibility to the new website to upload the documents. The Board has commended the ASB leaders for the guided tour and the discussion of the Community Circle practices held last week at Arcadia High School.

Eryca Yamane: The track team had a four-way sweep against Crescenta Valley and are now Pacific League Champions. This past week, Badminton had individual finals against the Almont League. Baseball beat Burroughs 5-3 and Softball beat Burbank 5-4; softball has senior night today against Hoover. Boys Golf are now 25-0 in the league, Swim had a four-way win against Glendale and Pasadena, Volleyball had their last home game and won, and Tennis has their last league match today, and are still undefeated.
